A red, rounded rectangular button with a white border and a slight shadow. The text "GET INSTANT ACCESS!" is written in white, bold, uppercase letters in the center of the button.

However, sentiments recovered in October-November after the enhanced tax surcharge on FPIs was rolled back and the government delivered a $20 billion fiscal boost by way of corporate tax rate cuts targeted at boosting corporate profitability and encouraging the setting up of new manufacturing facilities.

Other factors that contributed to the revival included relief measures for real estate industry and NBFCs and a surprisingly stable Indian Rupee.

Overseas investors have preferred equities over debt in 2019 with much higher inflows.

IDBI Bank's ED and Head Treasury Ashok Gautam said issues in financial sector, especially NBFC sector, has impacted the interest of FPIs in debt market, leading to more preference for equity.

Why Should You Get Free V Bucks Codes?

"Equity preference would largely be because FPIs were seeking higher returns from their investments. Investors from the west are exposed to lower interest rates with the constant fear of negative interest rate in some of the larger economies. This makes FPIs seek higher returns which they think they will be able to secure from equity investments in India," said Harsh Jain, Co-founder and COO of Groww, India.

Banks, oil and gas and insurance sectors have been among the top recipients of FPI flows. While private banks continued to hog the limelight, the year saw many insurance companies getting listed on the bourses, which saw strong FPI interest.

FPIs started the year on a negative note and pulled out over ₹4,200 crore from equities in January, but turned net buyers in February and the positive momentum continued till June.
